C. W. WHITE, MANAGER.

Milwaukee, April 20 1889

Mr Tourgee

Dear Sir: Your letter forwarded by Clayton reached me Thursday. I was sorry to hear of your decision not to accept the invitation, but of course you know best. I will meet you tomorrow afternoon (i.e. Sunday) at half past four in the Plankinton House where you wrote you were going to stop. I shall be pleased to make the most agreeable arrangements to both parties in regard to the lecture.

Sincerely yours

J. C. Comstock
