ST. PAUL, MINN. Apr. 24 " 1889

1.30 p.m.

My dear wife: I have been here since 10.30. Have a bad headache and am not feeling well. Have sent for mail but did not get it — yet at least and am not sure I will as I do not know as you know in whom one to send it or whether to send it here or else? where — to Minneapolis, I mean.

I am going to bed now and try and sleep off my aches. Shall start back tomorrow morning, and may get home at 11 Friday night.
