Annual ✧ Convention
OF THE
PSI UPSILON FRATERNITY,
✧ 1889. ✧

Dear Sir and Brother:

The general convention in the 56 year of the Fraternity, will be held with the Upsilon Chapter of the University of Rochester, on Thursday and Friday, May 16 and 17, 1889.

The exercises of the convention will be as follows :

Business Meetings will be held during each day, at DAMASCUS TEMPLE, Reynold's Arcade; the first session commencing Thursday morning, at half past ten o'clock.

THE PUBLIC LITERARY EXERCISES will take place at the Lyceum Theatre, four doors from the Chapter House, on Thursday evening at half past seven o'clock. The speakers will be S. A. LATIMORE, L. L. D., τ Chaplain; REV. HENRY H. STEBBINS, D. D. B., President; President CHARLES K. ADAMS, L. L. D. ϕ Orator and REV. JOSEPH A. ELY, τ Poet.

THE RECEPTION will follow the Literary Exercises, and will be held at the Powers Hall and Art Gallery.

THE BANQUET will be held Friday evening, at half past seven at the Powers Hotel. Hon. Theodore Bacon, β., will preside, and among those who will respond to toasts will be Hon. Chauncey M. Depew.

Tickets for the dinner $4.00. The committee must know as soon as possible the number to be provided for and envelopes are enclosed for that purpose.

THE HEADQUARTERS of the convention will be The Livingston Hotel, Exchange street, near Main. The rates have been reduced to $2.00 for the occasion and rooms may be engaged at once.

RAILROAD ACCOMMODATIONS. We are in communication with the managers of the N. Y. C. R. R., and the West Shore R. R. Reduced rates are assured us for all points on these lines, but first we must know the number coming from your Chapter. The Chapters will be informed later as to the exact rates.

Invitations to the Literary Exercises and Reception will be sent to every member of the Fraternity residing in Rochester. Those who wish them sent to friends will please send lists of names with addresses, at once to the committee.

For any additional information write to the committee and address all communications, Psi Upsilon Convention Committee, 40 South Clinton Street, Rochester, N. Y.
