Reading, Pa., 10/5/89

Dear Sir:

I am not an autograph fiend and am not in the habit of writing people for "an autograph," but I have read your books and become interested in the author and in this case I suppose I shall have

To remain

Very truly yours

to allow myself to be classed with the autograph hunters, as I am an after your autograph. I enclose a
self-addressed envelope, with card, and all you will need to do will be to write the name and enclose the card. I trust you may grant my request and send me your autograph -

Yours truly I beg
