Office of
A. J. WHIPPLE,
JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.

North Sheffield, O. June, 1st 1889

Angie C. Kilbourne

Erie Pa.

Madam,

Recd. your claim of $150.
less taxes if any, paid, by decedent, against the Estate of Valentine Tourgee. As the Estate and its surrounding circumstances are comparatively strange to me, as yet, and in the absence of any written lease, desirous of dealing justly, as between claimants and Estate, (not doubting the same of you) I will take a little time for consideration, and write you again. Trusting all will be satisfactorily arranged, I remain yours

Respectfully A. J. Whipple,
Adm. of V. Tourgee
