Saint Helena, Isles, June 7, 89.

Judge A. W. Tougee,
Mayville New York,

Dear Sir: -

Pardon the liberty I take in writing this letter to you please, for I desire to ask for the author's name of the author of a book which you kindly lent to me while at Chautauque last summer. Its name is "Eighty-Nine" if I remember correctly. I became much interested in the book but was not able to finish reading it while there, and so desire to procure a copy to read now. Can you direct me where to get one?

Trusting that yourself and family may be spending a pleasant summer; and with kindest regards,

I am,

Respectfully yours

Leonard N. White.
