Dear Sir:

With your works and your ability as a writer we are perfectly familiar; and that your novel will be a most excellent one when completed, we have not a shadow of a doubt. It is the custom of this office to have the MS. in hand before purchasing it, in order that we may see if, independent of the merits of the story, it is adapted to our publication. If you can give us a little more data to go by - a short synopsis of the plot, the estimated length of the novel, or any facts which you may have at your command, we shall be pleased to hear from you.

Yours truly,
