

3871

WALWORTH AUTOMATIC LINK SPRINKLER.

R. BOYLSTON HALL, Western Agent,
177 La Salle Street.

MANUFACTURED BY

WALWORTH MANUFACTURING COMPANY
BOSTON, MASS.

CHICAGO,

Nov 17th 1889.

Dear Judge,

It first occurs to me, being an old "Bunker Hill" boy, was born at the foot of that Hill, not "Breed's" where the battle was really fought that this is the anniversary of that important event. I presume my young brothers had a great time this A.M. early, in their fantastic parade, one of them takes quite an active part in the arrangements, was last year, Chief Marshal. I believe

I read very carefully with much gratification your weekly article in the Inter Ocean. It was some two weeks ago on Freedom. I cut out & sent to my old friend "Corporal Tamm". I have his acknowledgment of same. He says, "I shall read with pleasure the Judge's article as I know the Judge very well." The Country is not too full of such people as yourself, we old soldiers can appreciate your able & fearless articles in the Inter Ocean. With deep respect, faithfully,
 An Army Surgeon
 R. Boylston Hall