My dear Mrs Tourgee,

Mr. Albright has handed me your letter. I did not know that he had sent you a bill until I saw your note.

It is all right. I have had the books ~~sent~~ <sup>fixed</sup> on you. will not be deemed again. It was my oversight. Albright attends to that part of the business.

I hope the Judge and Lodie are in good health - and you also - of course - Hattie and the girls are now at Albion New York where I think they will stay until September -

Yours truly
Thomas B. Keogh
