Raleigh, N. C., July 7th 1889.

Dear Mr. Souree,

Yours of the Glorious 4th with congratulations to hand, for which please accept thanks.

Tell the Judge I have given but two or three his address, supplemented with the remarks that I thought he was hunting the festive Jack Rabbit in the Sierra Nevada.

I suppose if I had said you (he) was bobbing for grizzlies they would have let him alone. I hope, however, that he will find it in his heart to give a letter to W W. N. Hunter of Kinston. You know that I care for any others.

As to telling anybody that he has no influence with this administration, I am built a little on the order of the boy with the little hatchet and would like some proof on that "no influence" theory. When I intended as candidate for Collector recommending White, and went for the post office, I had little Note. This letter is a little mixed in the personal pronouns - but I hope you will be able to understand it.

beside the Judge's letter, and no acting friend, A plain statement of my age, birth place, education and service found a part of the Application. Mr Warramater said he remembered you well, and acted after your present character. I do not think he is without influence.

Well - the mills of the gods grind slow, but - "I killed Cock robin," I mean D. (R.E) Young. It wasn't I, but it was his aspiring legatee, and has it the North State got it bad? Like a blind adder they strike at everybody. I cannot conceive what they mean by "the remnant that fought the party two years ago last fall." It evidently means me - but I did not fight the party two years ago. For 4 years - 1881 to 1885 - they dispensed patronage through Mr Arthur - and evidently think they acquired an inalienable right to continue under Mr Harrison.

Logan's friends take it hand.

Raleigh, N. C., ..... 188.....

They made a long and bitter contest, and gave everybody to understand that the place belonged to him and anybody jumping his claim would receive a jumpers reward.

Contumacious and disingenuous set on every Harris countenance when my appointment was announced. They make a great racket, but they are few in number, and growing beautifully less. Only C. H. Upchurch, whose bond I have signed above for years - that he might hold office, live like a nabob at home, spend his winters in Florida and his summers in the mountains and by the sea - keeps up the fight.

I have not yet rec'd my Commission - though my bond was filed a week ago. Senator Hawley is Upchurch's hope. He has worked persistently for Harris. All well here - and all send love and greeting.

Sincerely & thankfully,
A. W. Shaffer
