Philadelphia July 11th 1889
Hon. A. W. Tourgee.

Dear Sir,

Your favor of the 8th inst is at hand and we infer that you must be under the impression that we intend using the Magazine plates as they are.
Perhaps our letters have not <sup>been</sup> perfectly clear on this point, and we send you by accompanying mail a copy of our American Novel Series - Capt.
King's two stories - from which you will see that the plates are cut down so as to make a volume substantially uniform with your books.

In view of this fact we presume there will be no further objection to our arrangement for handling the work.

If you will have the kindness to send an revised copy, we will see whether your changes can be incorporated in the plates in harmony with our plan; and if not will consider the advisability of restarting
the work.

The series sells at $1.00 in cloth and 50¢ in paper.

covers, your copyright being 10% on these prices.

Awaiting your reply we beg to remain

Yours Truly
