Dear Sir

Yours of the 23rd to hand.
Many thanks for your suggestions. I am sure we shall find them helpful.

We began last week in issue July 18th. first thing in paper, to speak of it.

It is hardly necessary for me to say that while it may be a good thing to speak of the uncertainty as to what you are to make of it, & the liberty you have with it, yet of course you will bear in mind what the Advance is, & how careful we must be along certain lines not to transgress the bounds such religious papers have set up as to the matter in them. I merely speak of it now that there be, if necessary, which do not suppose a conscientious care in the matter to that end.

Yours truly

H. S. Harrison.
