

Convent, C.

July 25th 1880.

Dear Mrs. Conjee.

Your very sweet note was received and should have been answered at once, but am glad now that I did not do so, as I saw in this also acknowledge the receipt of the paper with the Judge's poem, which is excellent. We have all enjoyed it greatly and have criticized and praised it sufficiently to please even the most fastidious.

The law was found and I will return it to you by Miss Kilborn, who is to return home on Saturday.

As I write that, I am convinced that perhaps "home" to Augie is not Mayville? Well, I will see that the pin is sent to you at once.

The "excursion" is in a promising condition, but when I saw Theron on Sunday, he had about decided not to attend as the convention is to be held in Jefferson on Sunday, to which he is a delegate, but he may have changed his plans since then. I thank you very kindly for your cordial invitation to stop at Mayville and make your "home our home" and I indeed feel that you are in earnest in regard to it but Sue & I had promised a dear friend at Chautau qua to spend the Sunday with her, so feel that we must accept her invitation this time. We missed you all greatly and have been quite "down at the heel" ever since you left.

Thanking you again for all your sweet thoughtful kindnesses, and with much love from all to yourself and family I remain hastily,
Elizabeth B Raymond.

Well Loda (I do not know how to spell it) if she would like a little fruit cake I will send some on.

Satur.

I have opened my letter to say to you that Angie has just called and volunteered to take the pin, she will leave here on Saturday.

Pardon the shabby appearance of this note and accept best wishes.
