

Coalmville, Utah Ter., 8-1-89.

Judge Abner W. Tongue:

Dear Sir;

I desire to get as clear an idea of the South (Old & New)
as is possible for a Northern man & so will be very much obliged to you for a list of 6 or 8 books, in addition to 'a Fork' Enard's 'Bricks without Straw' & Mr. Haygood's 'Plan for Progress'.

Volumes treating of the industrial, social,
political & educational condition of the South,
with a word or two describing the characteristics of each volume, would be specially desirable.
I have seen Susan Slattery's 'Memories of a Southern Planter' highly commended, however I shall prefer as ~~the~~ much brevity as possible in the story part of a volume.

I remain
Yours Truly

W. H. Kaufman
