

The Inter Ocean.

Chicago, Aug 23rd 1889

My Dear Judge

My dinner is away and the multitude of things that crowd upon me have increased or should have written you before. Enclosed is draft for $2500 as requested by Mr. T. I do not know whether it is due or not - even for account when he returns.

The more I think about it the less do I desire to give you up as a contribution to the Inter Ocean so if you are a possible one with entrance - Perhaps when it so occurs that we can meet personally we can change the By Stander somewhat - My idea however is very indefinite as yet - Just you had a very pleasant vacation

Yours truly
William D. Fiske
