

Bristol, Conn. Sept. 9, 1889

Dear Judge Tourgis,

I did not mean to insinuate, in the least degree, that I thought your terms unreasonable. I did not think they are unreasonable. My sincere regret was that the treasury of our Assⁿ was in such a depleted condition that we ^{can} not afford the outlay at present. I hope we may have an opportunity of hearing you sometime.

Sincerely yours,

George H. Tracy,

Pres. Com. State Teachers' Assⁿ.
