HOMER E. DUDLEY,
50 CHAPIN BLOCK,
BUFFALO, N. Y.

Sept 24, 1889.

Hon. A. W. Bourne,
Mayville, N. Y.

Sir: Your postal of yesterday, at hand for which please accept my thanks. I enclose subscription blanks for your signature. You will note that the work is put out in several styles. One way, that is in 74 sections, costs $$7.50$ per month or section, ^{total 60.00}. Another way, also bound in cloth, in six volumes, at $$10.00$ per volume, costing in the aggregate same as the sections. The other way, is elegantly bound in sheep, (very handsome) 6 vols. at $$15.00$ each volume, or $$90.00$. My idea is that you will prefer the work in the large volumes. Of course the leather bound books are the handsomest

Though the cloth will last a lifetime. If you wish the work in sections, sign subscription blank "A"; if in cloth volumes sign "B" and for leather, sign "C".
Upon hearing from you we will send you what you prefer.

Thanking you for your order, I am, dear sir, Yours very respectfully Homer B. Dudley

P.S. Nearly all professional men prefer the volumes, not caring for so many books. We just as soon supply one kind as the other.

Yours

H. B. D.
