

IN RE

OFFICE OF

HARRIS J. CHILTON,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW.

No. 202 COURTLAND ST.

BALTIMORE, MD.

Oct 10

1889

Dear Mr Judge

Your valuable letter to me, endorsing compulsory voting, at hand, it is noticed, in the Baltimore American of this date, I have written articles for the paper, quoting your book "Letters to a King," I expect, to help along the sale of your works a good deal. You say, such a law, as framed by yourself passed the Senate of New York, please send me a copy of the same, also, a copy of your law, introduced over 20 years ago, in North Carolina, I have devoted my life to this subject, have hundreds of letters from great men, have actually had my draft of a law, as sent to you, copy righted, within the last year, but I have been writing on the subject for fully ten years. If you will write to the Editor of the Boston Pilot, John Boyle. D. Reilly, who knows me in person, he will no doubt, pay you for an article, on this subject, as he is with us, in this fight, to ascertain the real voice of the People, as a duty towards God, as well as towards Man - I hope, you will prepare a National Law covering this ground and, send it to the Hon Wm. C. Chandler of New Hampshire, Senator, he says Hon Charles Sumner was for such a law

Yours sincerely
Harris J. Chilton
