Cleveland, O., Oct. 18, 1889.

My Dear Sir:-

Yours of Oct. 12th received, and I think you cordially for your offer to write me a prefer. I am more than likely to recall it to you as soon as I have time to look after the matter of getting out a book.

Thanks also for the copy of Frank Leslie's. I saw it copied just now, with proper credit, in a newspaper published by a colored man for circulation among colored people, ^{a roundabout way of saying a "colored" newspaper.} Your labors are appreciated by those you seek to benefit.

Yours very truly,

Chas. W. Chesnut,

Judge A. W. Tourgee,

Mayville, N. Y.
