

4089

Mississippi.

Oct 23rd 1859.

Sam A. W. Tamm, 3
Mayville, 3

My Dear Judge.

Your letter of recent date was a great pleasure, as it showed me that you had not forgotten "Antislavery", and that the failure to answer for a long time was not intentional.

I read with great interest notices of a Bytander, and send the papers to a friend in Greenville who is one of your admirers, and says you lay open with your scathing the festering hypocrisies of the Southern Congress.

My campaign as Elector at large last Fall enabled me to see deeper into the mill stone than I had ever seen before, and quickened my intention to get away from the South. But I find few in the North who can or will understand the danger which menaces the Country.

The Mississippi and Louisiana spirit of intolerance is fast sweeping over so conservative a State as

North Carolina, and will soon manifest itself in the taking of human life, as the slightest cause or pretext. Incidents in the last campaign clearly revealed such disposition, and another election
will show the consummation of such purpose.

I did not however sit down to write on such matters, but among other things to say that I was requested by the representative of the I. M. C. A.
to ask you if you made a visit to Dakota this winter, will you deliver a lecture in our City
for them, and on what terms?

Please consider the matter, and let me know your conclusion, so I may communicate it to them
at some early day.

I found your letter to Mr. Smith to read, and he gives me in the hope that you will stop over to see us, and let us review the past, as well as plan for the future.

With kindest regards, believe me

Truly yours,

Aug. M. Moore,