

My dear Wright: Yours are. I think you are quite right in regard to the estate, and if the creditors like it I am sure I don't care ~~me~~ enough to fight the matter. I suspect that certain creditors — for instance Malley — have been promised payment if they will not interfere. Why don't the creditors band together and bid on the land. They could either get it for the allowance and the mortgage debt or compel the conspirators to bid up so as to give them their debts. However they can do as they choose.

I have had several inquiries about the place belonging to Miss Kelburn. ~~The~~ One from a Man named Fleischer of Ingersville. I have directed him to see you and make an offer. The owner does not care about the money and would just as lief sell on ten year's time as on one, if it can be made secure. We are not peddling and if one wants the place they can make an offer.

I shall be going west about Nov. 6th or 7th and will advise you as to time. Then you can meet me at Council Bluffs, Ashland or Brie and we can hold a pow-wow on the train. I don't see how I can get away before that time.

Yours Truly
