FRANCIS A. WILLIAMS,
CONCERT HALL BLOCK.

P. O. BOX 864.

Brooklyn, N. Y., November 23, 1889.

My dear Langford

Yours with enclosure came duly to hand. It is always a pleasure with us to serve our friends. My family only regretted that they were unable to see more of you, and hope as the sea is broken and no one quite drowned they enjoy a further acquaintance.

The foot is progressing favorably, with regards to you and yours, I remain -

Very truly,
F. Williams
