JOURNAL BUILDING.

Jamestown, N. Y., Nov 30 1889.

Dear Madam:

I am grateful to you for a copy of "With Gauge and Swallow", and also for copies of The Advance. The Judge's latest effort interests me even more than any one of the other of his stories which I have read. I am certain to possess myself of a copy when it is issued in book form. Again please accept my thanks for your kindness.

Sincerely and Respectfully,
Fred. W. Hyde.
