

STEAM HEATING, ELECTRIC BELLS AND ELEVATOR.

SiouxFalls, South Dak, Dec 15 1889

My dear wife:

I have driven 50 miles and have but five minutes. Of course, the dog must be killed if more severely dead. Better give him a little strychnine and have him buried decently. Poor fellow! I am sorry but must - specially grim for you
who have loved him so fondly. It is too bad though but I am no way out of it.

Hurately & sadly
Albin.
