Dear Mr. Foye

Your postal received.
Large & small came duly I have & I have just about gained & swallowed it. It was appetizing & strengthening & shall have pleasure in acknowledgment ~~next~~ well.

I sent you today a copy of the advertiser in its new dress hastily done.
I would like your opinion & that of the Judge as to how it looks, for you are both experienced critics, & I really like the Judge to give me a little note on Country Journalism, in lieu of the nice lengths he promised to write me from the Pacific coast & thereafter, had I will try to get even with him some day.

With kind regards,
and as always

Sincerely Yours

A. A. Russell
