Hon. A. N. Tourgee.

Dear Sir:—

Pardon me for taking Your valuable time but I would be pleased to call your attention to a matter which is of interest to both you and I.

There is in our place a society of Christian Endeavors, composed of the best portion of our younger people. but, alas! they are none of them blessed with an over abundance of this world's goods.

The society is sadly in need of funds for the prosecution of its aims with which you are no doubt familiar. Our regular meetings are attended by a goodly number of young people, those who make no profession, and it is the effort of our society to show the better way. In order to make things more interesting we have purchased new song books, and there is on foot a movement to add a supply of bibles to further interest those not members of the society in good works.

Now my proposition is this:— Can you help us?

By coming over here at a time best suited to your convenience and address an audience under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. C. it is thought good may be accomplished in more ways than one; the influence of our society would be increased, a fund created for further disbursements and you, yourself aided by the community. For work in this way is always helpful. Under these conditions, can you aid us, and if so, on what terms?

I do not know what was paid you when you were here before but at this time sincerely hope you will place the figures so low that we may conclude a bargain.

Hoping for an early and favorable reply

I remain truly yours for the great cause of Right!
