Dec. 28-1887

My dear Judge -

I have just rec'd

"Gaze & Smellow" and your
"Xmas" for 1887 - How much it pleases me to be remembered by you; and how pleasant it is to have friends who can remember you in such an entertaining, instructive, and delightful way. When do you get time to do all your work?

Accept my thanks; and good wishes in addition for yours and your the coming year. As soon as I have had time to enjoy "Gaze & Smellow" you will get my impressions of the work -

I have telegraphed and written Manassas on P. M. 4. about the P. Q. commission as you suggest - and I think your suggestion in that regard excellent - I suppose it would have occurred to me before if I had not been so busy - I see Walker has been nominated - and if he accepts there is no vacancy - but I have suggested you if he does not accept - We are about moving into a new home after which we hope to see you and Mrs. Meyer

With good wishes,
Truly yours,
Adelbert Moot
