

My dear Sir: ~~I have~~ ~~the~~ ~~3~~

I send herewith the article you solicited. In so far as the limits of space assigned would permit I have endeavored to touch the most salient as well as the most usually neglected points of the subject.

I enclose also autograph and photograph. I do not fancy the use of either but a man's face and his fist become public property. This one is the latest I have ~~to send you~~ having been taken by of Dec that about two years ago. Of course, I am a good deal better, looking now but as I never "got up for a beauty," it doesn't matter very much.

Shall be glad to receive ~~you~~ an acknowledgement at your earliest convenience. Would be glad also to see a proof of the article before it appears.