

$334 50th copy

Jan 5 1890

Dear George

Dear Sir

Your kind letter of the 21st of last included your intentions, if possible, to pay me the $300 between the first of October and this date, and that no effort on your ^{part} should be lacking to light-ten my affliction in a material point of view.
Having strong hopes on these assurances and aware that you were regularly writing for the Inter

- Ocean and Ledger, and that you have been engaged lecturing the past three months, my disappointment has been most disheartening at receiving only $25 through Madam Hargie, made the more saddening by an allusion to her loss of interest on that amount, and no assurance of any further payment. In this connection my loss of interest for six years on the $300 is altogether forgotten.
Dear Judge, my noble, lost bread-winner always spoke warmly of your high honor and generosity, relying on which, I again appeal to you not to desert me in the agony of my accumulating afflictions.

Yours respectfully
M. C. V. V. Brien
