Chicago, Jan. 6th, 1890.

Dear Mrs. Tour gee,

Yours with draft enclosed received, and we have placed the same to the Judge's credit. As you well know, it is very hard to date anybody during the holidays and week of prayer. We will endeavor to make the trip to the Black Hills a paying one, and as soon as we can get a week's time for the Judge filled out there, will start him out again, and we think we will make a fair season's work for him.

Yours truly,

Slayton Lyceum Bureau.
