

Austin Texas Jan. 28th 1890

To the Hon. Judge A. W. Tougee 14 Magville Chautauque Co. New York Kind Sir, Yours of Jan. 22nd 1890 have been rec'd announcing the arrival of my own, which have gone the rounds by wrong direction. I am truly glad however, that you have rec'd it. I am anxious to know more of the good work you have, and are doing, for my race, and common humanity. I am a Republican and an Ex-Union Soldier, serving nearly four years in the Regular Army 9th Cavalry. I preached the Gospel, as best I could, in the Army, and since have entered fully into the Ministry M. E. Church Am now 40 yrs. of age, in good health; and trust will be able to do much good in future. I read "A Fool's Errand" some years ago, but loaned it to a friend who never returned it. It is thrilling and pathetic. I wish to get the seven vols., New popular Editions for $10⁰⁰ named in the circular. If you can afford to let me have them at a reduced price, your kindness would be highly appreciated.
A Methodist preacher must invest much of his limited salary, in books. Send them C. O. D.
I am Yours sincere Mack Hanson. 904 Olive
