Crawford, Neb.

Jan 28, 1890.

To the
Hayden Lyceum Bureau,
Chicago, Ills.

Gentlemen:

3  $\frac{1}{2}$  miles South West is a large post. I went up there and looked matter up to see what they would do for Judge Tongue. For our own sake I preferred that they should come down to Crawford. On account of the night ride they preferred if possible to get Judge Tongue to come up to the post and lecture in the afternoon of the day he was to be at Crawford. The enclosed letter will tell you what they are able to do.

The place is a pleasant one and the fact a pleasant change from our town.

We could not persuade Judge Tongue to give this afternoon lecture for the benefit of our struggling Home Missionary Church?

Please let me know what you think about this.

Very sincerely,

Edward H. Pound.
