

Dear Papa-

In your letter written Wed. a. m. - which I just received, you say "do not let any foolish desire for present • gratification-etc" I'm assure you I am not working hard for my own pleasure. The harder I work the less ap= proval I get. After what you said because I did not think I could blush that 4th of July evening of yours I thank you would rather hesitate before you reproved me for endeavouring to accomplish your mat. explicitly expressed desire I made up my mind then that I would go some or something, to show you that I was willing enough to do as you wished, But I dont seem able to satisfy you any way - for which I am very sorry your daughter

Amel L. Tringle.

Thursday 30th Jan. 90.