

B. A. Barlow,
Counselor at Law,
Jamestown, N.H.

Jan. 31-1890.

Hon. A.W. Tourgee,
Mayville, N.Y.

Dear Sir.

Your letter of the 29th inst. was duly received; I exceedingly regret that the examination gave your your health so serious a set back; of course under the circumstances, the only thing we could do was to have the case called by the referee, and your default entered; the referee noted what you say in your letter, and ~~if~~ if you appear Feb. 6th 1890, at 10 o'clock A.M. the default will be opened and we will go on with the examination, but with the understanding that Mrs. Tourgee come also, and that she bring with her all statements she has received from publishers of your books since your former examination, including books written and published since your said examination, also books and figures showing what the receipts have been from your work, and your work & your wives work combined, since said examination.

Yours Respectfully,

B. A. Barlow.

*will pay wife within five
if you decline it, B.*