

FORDS, HOWARD, & HULBERT,

No. 30, Lafayette Place,

(Below Astor Library).

New York, Feb 23 1890

Dear Mrs. Carnegie:

Enclosed we hand you memo. bill for set of books to be sent by Express to Austin, Tex. We will do nothing further about them until we hear from you again.

We have just sent Mr. Britton a check for $31⁴⁵, as his due half of profits for 1889 - The amount was reduced by our having printed several of the volumes - The debit balance of the "Caesar" is brought down to '93⁸³. The writer has forgotten whether or not you wish copies of the itemized statements, so will not take the time to make the copies unless you so desire.

Very truly yours,

Carde, Howard Hulbert

of "Black Sea" we sold only 179 copies & have paid McCumings # 2797.
