

THE FORUM,
253 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK.

Feb. 7, 1890
Mrs. Albion W. Tourgee.

Dear Madam:

I thank you for your note of yesterday. The article was sent to the printers on receipt of your telegram, and I hope to be able to mail a proof as soon as to-morrow. I certainly think that the matter should be given to the public. If such a defect exists, the quicker the country knows it the better.

Yours very truly,

L. D. Metcalf.