A LIBRARY OF AMERICAN LITERATURE,

In Eleven Elegant Large Octavo Volumes with over 6,000 Pages, Handsomely Illustrated with 160 Full Page Portraits.

COMPILED AND EDITED BY

EDMUND CLARENCE STEDMAN AND ELLEN MACKAY HUTCHINSON.

This work is a choice collection of the best selections that can be made from all that has been written by American authors. It is arranged chronologically, so that the reader may at a glance view the course of our literature from its inception in 1607 to its present variety and eminence. It contains the finest examples of American thought and imagination. A complete library in itself, of engrossing interest throughout, and every line of which reflects the best intellect of the period in which it was written. No set of books has ever been more favorably received by the public and the press. There is nothing which surpasses it for a holiday present. It is adapted to the wants of all classes of readers. It is, and must remain the standard collection of our National Literature. The price is only $3.00 per volume, in the best American cloth binding, and we will deliver a complete set at your house, express charges prepaid, on receipt of $3.00 and let you pay the remainder at the rate of only $3.00 per month. You can sell scores of sets on these easy terms. If you were to see a set you would buy it. You do not need experience; the book and the terms sell it. We can give you exclusive control of your county if you can give us your time. If you wish to sell it, or to buy it, write at once for descriptive circulars, specimen pages, samples of portraits, etc., which will be sent free to applicants.

Dear Madam:--

Your favor of the 6th inst expressing your desire to secure a set of the "Library of American Literature" for your husband received. We have been unable to send an agent to your locality as yet, but will forward the books direct from this office.

We have never given any discount, but at the request of Mr Stedman we will make an exception in your favor and will furnish you with a set, express charges prepaid, on receipt of the price, less 20 per cent, cash with the order. We do this trusting you to keep the discount absolutely confidential and in the hope that you will, in a quiet way, advance the sale of this magnificent work among your friends. Will allow you our regular commissions on any additional sales that you may send us.

Yours respectfully,

Chas. L. Webster & Co.,
