It is arranged chronologically, so that the reader may at a glance view the course of our literature from its inception in 1607 to its present variety and eminence. It contains the finest examples of American thought and imagination. A complete library in itself, of engrossing interest throughout, and every line of which reflects the best intellect of the period in which it was written. No set of books has ever been more favorably received by the public and the press. There is nothing which surpasses it for a holiday present. It is adapted to the wants of all classes of readers. It is, and must remain the standard collection of our National Literature. The price is only $3.00 per volume, in the best American cloth binding, and we will deliver a complete set at your house, express charges prepaid, on receipt of $3.00 and let you pay the remainder at the rate of only $3.00 per month. You can sell scores of sets on these easy terms. If you were to see a set you would buy it. You do not need experience; the book and the terms sell it. We can give you exclusive control of your county if you can give us your time. 3 EAST 14th STREET

New York, February 13, 1890.

Mrs A. W. Tourgee,
Mayville, N. Y.

Dear Madam:--

Your favor of the 17th inst received and will state that the net cash price on the books quoted to you would be $24 in cloth, either style, $32 in sheep, $40 half morocco, for the ten volumes that are now out. The eleventh volume is being prepared at an expense of many thousands of dollars and much time and labor, and we cannot finish it earlier than May; can ship you the ten volumes now and the eleventh when issued.

Do you not consider that the seven pages devoted to Judge Tourgee's writings in this magnificent work should be an equivalent of any notice that he might give it or any efforts he might make to extend its sale? We would hardly be prepared to give an equivalent of a set of books in advertising, for the New York Sun gave us between 20 and 30 columns of review for a set.

Trusting that this will be all satisfactory and thanking you for the suggestion as to Chautauqua, we are

Yours respectfully,

Chas. L. Webster & Co.,
