Hon A. W. Tourgee.

Dear Sir

I am very anxious to have you see our non-partisan paper "The White Ribbon" as I am sending you four copies. Mrs J. D. Weeks the Editor, began her work with the first number.

Your letter, read by Mrs Phinney at the Cleveland conference will make our opposers add you to their list of objectionable persons. so I really think it would be well for you to read some of the facts on our side of the question. Mrs Foster's new Leaflet will be ready for distribution next week.

Yours for the best that we can do.

Allen M. Watson.
