

Ex 10

Dear Sir: I have your letter ~~and enclosed article~~ to my busband was received. As he works only by dictation I have ~~charge of all his books and~~ I have the preparation of all manuscript and copyright
the same ^{in my own name and have this.} he has always refused to ~~accept any~~ do any work in a symposium believing it bad policy and unjust to the writer.

I have persuaded him to allow me to forward this article to you because it is especially in his line and in as ~~now~~ no one else is likely to touch.

TOURGEE'S WORKS.

Frequent inquiries in regard to his books and how they may be obtained has induced the writer to prepare this list. The prices given in full-faced type are the rates at which the publishers will supply these books by mail. They may be obtained by ordering of the author direct at the prices given in the second column:

*A Fool's Errand,.....	bound in cloth	$1.50	$1.20
*Hot Plow Shares,.....	"	1.50	1.20
*Figs and Thistles,.....	"	1.50	1.20
*A Royal Gentleman,.....	"	1.50	1.20
*Bricks Without Straw,.....	"	1.50	1.20
An Appeal to Cæsar,.....	"	1.25	1.00
Black Ice,.....	"	1.25	1.00
Button's Inn,.....	"	1.25	1.00
Letters to a King,.....	"	1.25	1.00
The Veteran and His Pipe,.....	"	1.00	.85
With Gauge & Swallow, (just out,)	"	1.00	.85
A White Christ, (in press,).....	"	1.00	.85

Remittances may be made by postal order or express money order, currency or postage stamps, at sender's risk. All orders will be acknowledged by postal card on the day received and filled as soon as they are reached. Books will be sent post-paid by mail unless otherwise ordered. Parties desiring packages registered should inclose ten cents additional. The only interest remaining to the author in these works is the profit derived from sales made in this manner. Address,

A. W. TOURGEE,

Mayville, N. Y.

*The five books marked with a star, bound uniform, entitled, "American Historical Novels," in a neat box, cloth, price $7.50; supplied at $6.37. The whole list, publishers' price $15.50, for $10.50 by express at purchaser's cost.

He never writes anything having his name attached for less than $25 dollars. If you can raise enough for this to forward $55 more you can publish.
It will ~~cost~~ the copyright notion. Otherwise you will ^{please} ~~lose~~ ~~it and not publish it at all.~~

Yours truly

H. W. Tougee

TOURGEE'S WORKS.

Frequent inquiries in regard to his books and how they may be obtained has induced the writer to prepare this list. The prices given in full-faced type are the rates at which the publishers will supply these books by mail. They may be obtained by ordering of the author direct at the prices given in the second column:

*A Fool's Errand,.....	bound in cloth	$1.50	$1.20
*Hot Plow Shares,.....	"	1.50	1.20
*Figs and Thistles,.....	"	1.50	1.20
*A Royal Gentleman,.....	"	1.50	1.20
*Bricks Without Straw,.....	"	1.50	1.20
An Appeal to Cæsar,.....	"	1.25	1.00
Black Ice,.....	"	1.25	1.00
Button's Inn,.....	"	1.25	1.00
Letters to a King,.....	"	1.25	1.00
The Veteran and His Pipe,.....	"	1.00	.85
With Gauge & Swallow, (just out,)	"	1.00	.85
A White Christ, (in press,).....	"	1.00	.85

Remittances may be made by postal order or express money order, currency or postage stamps, at sender's risk. All orders will be acknowledged by postal card on the day received and filled as soon as they are reached. Books will be sent post-paid by mail unless otherwise ordered. Parties desiring packages registered should inclose ten cents additional. The only interest remaining to the author in these works is the profit derived from sales made in this manner. Address,

A. W. TOURGEE,

Mayville, N. Y.

*The five books marked with a star, bound uniform, entitled, "American Historical Novels," in a neat box, cloth, price $7.50; supplied at $6.37. The whole list, publishers' price $15.50, for $10.50 by express at purchaser's cost.