

153 Powell Hall, Easton Pa.

Jan. 8, 1896

How Albion W. Tounges;

Dear Sir:

In Mr.

Bakel's absence I hasten to reply to your note of the 1st.

We have already advertised your lecture widely, have cards over town, so that everyone is expecting a lecture Thursday evening. We would gladly ~~change~~ this date however to the 13th were it not that this would throw the lecture in the midst of examinations, which would be a most unfortunate time. Again, our course tickets call for this one lecture to complete the series.

We will understand it is asking you much, perhaps too much, that you endeavor to be with us where ever, but hope you may consider it in the light of the above statements, and if you possibly can, come. Please let us know by telegram, to

Yours very truly

F. E. Taylor,

153 Powell Hall,

Easton, Pa.

P.S. I write you also at your home -

J. E. T.