Chicago, Mar. 12th 1890

Dear Mrs. Tourgee,

We see no way possible to make a paying trip out West for the Judge.

We have four or five engagements for him, but they are so far apart that it would cost him more than his fee would come to, to fill them. The price has been against the Judge $75.00 is more than the people wish to pay. This season and poverty is the cry from all quarters.

Yours truly
Slayton Lyceum Bureau.
