Dear Mr. Tourgee.

In reply to your favor of the 27th the book was published last Wednesday and was sent out to all the trade including Washington

We regret exceedingly that we did not get out the book as early as you desired but the fault is largely your own. You greatly delayed in revising the proof and made more alterations than we have ever made in a book.

We are quite content to take our share of the blame so far as it belongs to us but you must also remember that a good big end of it rests on your shoulders and we do not feel that we are the only culprits.

Yours truly

W. W. W. W. W.
