

J. B. Lippincott Company.
Publishers and Booksellers.

Philadelphia. Apr. 1, 1890.

Mrs. Emma K. Tourgee,

Dear Madam, -

Your favor of the 29th ult. is at hand, and in compliance with your directions, we mailed a copy of "Guage and Swallow" to Mr. Warner, for which a bill has been sent you. We also hand you a bill for ^{the} ~~two~~ small purchases you have made.

The work has been out such a short while, and so many copies are still in dealers' hands on sale, that we cannot make an absolutely accurate statement, and, therefore, sent none either to you or Mr. Skinner. At your request, we have looked into the subject, and now enclose a statement of the sales so far as we can make it up, which we trust will be satisfactory.

Very truly yours,

J. B. Lippincott
J. W. P.