April 3-'90.

Dear Judge;

I was very much pleased to receive "Button's Inn", and I am sure I shall like the story, — the title suggesting to me so many of the interesting chapters in Scott's novels.

lician yet; that in fact all she has to regret in its author is the fact that he is a member of that party.

Please tell Mrs Youngie that I enjoyed her type-writer very much. I wrote several "April Fool" letters on it and several other letters. I hope you are resting and growing stronger every day, so that when summer comes you can

I thank you also for the picture of yourself and Lodie. I can hardly tell which has the more reason to be grateful, mamma with her books,
or myself with my book and pictures. Both of us I assure you feel as if we had been highly favored. Miss Ayer wants me to tell you that "Pactolus Prime has
