

The National Bank of Westfield.

WESTFIELD, N. Y. April 4th, 1890. 1888.

Dear Mrs. T. urgee:-

Yours of the 2nd inst is received.

I am sorry to know that the Judge is not improving. I hoped that rest and change would benefit him and that, on his return from the trip to Washington, he would be able to resume his work.

Please remember me to him with kind regards and say to him that when I am again in Mayville I will call upon him if he is there.

Very truly yours,

