

Office of the Postmaster General,
Washington, D.C.

April 7, 1890.

My Dear Sir:-

The Postmaster General is much obliged for the suggestions contained in your favor of recent date, and directs me to say that he will give it his immediate attention.

With great respect,

Yours most truly,

Marshall Cushing

Private Secretary.

Mr. Albion W. Tourgee,

MAYVILLE, N. Y.