My dear Mrs. Touzée -

I have had my type writer make a copy of the contract - which I did forget - because I am getting afraid of trusting important papers to the mails. You will find that copy enclosed. I this morning received from Cassell's "Pactulus Prime" & I read the publisher's preface - which I think good. I anticipate much pleasure reading the work. I hope the paper is over when the Blair complaint comes you will see me at my earliest convenience. Do not let such matters worry you or the Judge for I assure you I know enough about you and your affairs to tell you Blair is doomed, You have nothing to fear from him or any one else.

With best wishes to you all,

Hastily - but sincerely

Albert Moore
