My Dear Judge Tourgee:-

Gratefully, do I acknowledge the receipt of your very excellent <sup>and</sup> appropriate gift. The book came addressed all right so there was no temporary doubt betwixt sire <sup>and</sup> son as to the ownership.

Perhaps you have learned of this before but if not, it may interest you to know that your 'protégé', Mr Bulla, has excellent prospects of being transferred from the R. M. S. to the position of Post-office Inspector. I gather this from official correspondence which passed through my desk.

Again, thanking you for my volume

believe me very truly
