House of Representatives U. S.,

Washington, D. C. Apr 17th, 1880.

My Dear Judge

Your containing Remarks before committee, and after obtaining type written copy, <sup>received,</sup> handed same to Mrs Lodge, who said he would have same printed, and as soon as that is done will transmit copies as you request.
Supt. of Document Room informed me he would have to call for a reprint, as the numberous calls for the bill had about exhausted the supply.
Calls from men not in Congress mostly. I have had many requisitions to fill, and so have other Members. It no doubt is being extensively hoped, even that much is something gained, and I have hopes it will be enacted into law, even before this session adjourns. Am sorry to say that I have not yet found time to read "Factolus Prison", the Copy of which you were so kind as to send me, and for which please accept my thanks. I anticipate much pleasure and information in reading it. Thanking you for your effective efforts in behalf of liberty everywhere, and wishing to be remembered to you, better & I am Yours truly Harrison Kelley
